עיוני תפילה By: R' Yossi Phillip	The Dubno Maggid, explains. Chesed is an act of kindness which goes lifnim meshuras ha'din, beyond the letter of the law. Emes, however, is truth. Thus, when a person fulfills his promise, it is an act of emes, since he is compelled to act to fulfill his promise. We say to Hashem that according to halachah, He must fulfill the emes resulting from His promise to the Avos. We understand, however, that the original promise was an act of chesed, an act of altruistic kindness from Hashem. Indeed, Hashem transformed His act of kindness into an act of emes.
